

Working for Change

Fact Sheet: Alberta

The Working for Change project aimed to better understand the employment experiences and challenges faced by Two Spirit, trans, and nonbinary people in Canada aged 16 and older. It was a mixed methods study.

This fact sheet summarizes the survey data of 109 participants from Alberta.

Workplace Experiences

74% hid or minimized aspects of their identity during job seeking process to avoid discrimination most of the time or always

Current Workplace

shared their gender with most people or everyone in current workplace

51% somewhat agreed or strongly agreed that their correct pronouns and name are respected at their workplace

felt they belonged at their current place of employment

49% somewhat agreed or strongly agreed that they feel comfortable and safe using the washroom of their choice at their workplace

History of Employment Experiences

70%

somewhat agree or strongly agree that they have experienced discrimination in the workplace

58% somewhat agree or strongly agree that they have quit a job because they did not feel accepted at work

23% somewhat agree or strongly agree that they have been fired or wrongfully let go for reasons related to their identity

Types of Work Experienced

+ Health

$ Income

Ability to meet basic needs

(housing, food, telephone and internet, clothing, transportation)

